

Guruvai Namah

commUnity, the subject society of the Department of Commerce, Deen Dayal Upadhyaya College, celebrated its annual Teachers' Day celebration - 'Guruvai Namah'. Every year, the department follows the tradition of felicitating the teacher's teacher. Dr. O P Gupta, Former Director IBS Gurgaon, Former Dean, Proctor and Head, Department of Financial Studies, University of Delhi, South Campus was the chief guest for Guruvai Namah.

The event was commemorated with the lighting of the lamp followed by a classical prayer dance. It portrayed a women's sixteen steps of beautification from head to toe, commonly known as the 'Solah Sringaar'. The beautiful theme accompanied with the graceful turns and movements of the Kathak dance left the audience in a trance. Keeping up with the spiritual theme, a rendition of Raag Bhairavi was presented accompanied by the tabla and the tanpura providing inner peace to the souls of everyone present there.

This was followed by a formal welcome address by our principal, Dr. S K Garg and a highly motivational and inspirational address by our chief guest, Professor Gupta. He not only talked about his past experiences, but also gave the audience his words of wisdom, to be applied in their lives.

The formal oath taking ceremony of the office bearers of commUnity for the academic session 2018-19 was also conducted. The office bearers for 2018-19 are Pragya Gautam, Vice President ; Ashish Rohilla, General Secretary ; Rahul Khurana and Keshav Mittal, Joint Secretaries ; Shubham Kataria, Treasurer ; Malika Asthana, Editor and Arnab Jain, Social Outreach Chair.

Teachers In-Charge : Dr. Anand Saxena

Ms. Anubhuti Yadav