Notice – Seventh Cut-Off

University of Delhi has announced the Seventh Cut-Off. The Guidelines for applying for admissions in the Seventh Cut-Off is similar to those announced for Sixth Cut-Off.

- a) Applicants who were eligible to take admission and were meeting the required cut-off of a particular college + course combination up to the sixth cut-off will not be considered for admission in the same college + course combination in the seventh cut-off. In case the seventh cut-off percentage in a particular course + college combination is same as the previous cut-off, then this condition will not apply.
- b) However, any applicant who has not been admitted in any college/ course till date and does not satisfy criteria (a), that is, has a percentage that was falling in any one of the previous Cut-Off may apply to a course + college combination. In case the college has vacant seats in the course after the seventh cut-off (after 9th Dec 2020), the college may approve the candidature of such applicants.
- c) Before cancelling/withdrawing the admission, the applicant/s must ensure that s(he) meets the required cut-off and is eligible to take admission in the college + course combination. Admission once cancelled/withdrawn will not be restored.
- d) The cancellation/withdrawal option will be available only once for the applicant to take admission in the seventh cut-off. If, after applying in the seventh cut-off, an applicant withdraws/ cancels his/ her admission, s(he) will not be able to apply again in the seventh cut-off.
- e) Before applying, the applicants must recheck their marks/percentages and eligibility criteria very carefully. Refer to the Bulletin of Information for eligibility and the respective cutoffs and additional riders (if any).
- f) The applicant will be himself/herself responsible for withdrawing/ cancelling the application.
- g) As already notified in the Bulletin of Information: If at any stage, it is found that eligibility requirements are not fulfilled, the admission, if granted, shall be cancelled ipso facto.
