INTRODUCTION

The Right to Information Act intends to set out the practical regime of Right to Information for citizens to enable them to access the information under the control of public authority in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of such authority.

Section 2 (h) of the Act defines "public authority" as any authority or body or institution of self-governance established or constituted by or under the constitution or by law made by the Parliament or any state legislature or by notification issued by the appropriate government. It includes body owned, controlled or substantially financed by the government.

In accordance with the provisions contained in section 2(j) of the Act, Right to Information means right to information accessible under this Act which is held by or under control of a public authority.

This Information Handbook will enable the citizens to obtain information as to the provisions contained in various rules and regulations governing the college and related information.

This Information Handbook is divided into 17 manuals.

Manual -12 provides for information on the manner of execution of subsidy programmes. This programme per se is not applicable to the college.

Vision Statement

The true knowledge liberates the individual from the shackles of ignorance / envy, hatred and narrow-mindedness. Our vision is to mould young minds through education and shape them into citizens who not only excel in the skills they have acquired but are also aware of their responsibility towards society, our country and the World. We wish to send out from the precincts of this college young individuals who throb to the tune of Vasudev Kutumbakam.

Mission

We recognize the challenges of an interdependent and competitive world and the need for our students to adapt and excel in it. To achieve this, we provide space to the students to freely express and develop views that help them respond to changes in the society and thus develop as professionals who are committed to their personal and professional endeavors and who have the vision, courage and dedication to initiate and manage change.
