

ZEST ORIENTATION CEREMONY 2021

“Literature is one of the most interesting and significant expressions of humanity.” On the 22nd of November 2021, Zest, the English Literary Society of the Department of English, Deen Dayal Upadhyaya college, University of Delhi conducted a virtual orientation program on Google Meet for the first year students at 10 AM as part of Deeksharamb program. The program was chiefly hosted by the second year students of the department, A total of 70 participants including more than 40 first year students joined the event. The senior students and the faculty of the department welcomed the freshers to the English honours family. The event was compered by Disha Nashine, Nandana P R, Nyasha, Sejal Dutta, Shailvi, Sheena and Swati from the second year. Through a PowerPoint presentation the course structure, Zest activities, the various ZEST teams and the faculty were introduced. After the presentation, students from the new batch introduced themselves. This was then followed by the address to the new students by the teachers. They shared their thoughts and welcomed the new batch on behalf of the department. The new batch was welcomed into the journey of exploring the world of literature. The event culminated with a question-and-answer session where the seniors and the faculty answered the queries and doubts of the new students.
