

Quiz Competition in collaboration with Microsphere 2.0

The event Microsphere 2.0 was conducted in online mode on Zoom Platform on September 17, 2022. One of the events of the Microsphere was a Quiz Competition. Prior to the quiz, several presentations and talks by eminent scholars in the field of microbiology had taken place. The quiz began at 18:30 and was conducted via google form. Two forms were released, one for school students and one for undergraduate and postgraduate students. The quiz was made and conducted by Dr. A. Archana from the Microbiology Department of Swami Shraddhanand College, University of Delhi, Dr Parminder Kaur Narang from the Zoology Department of Khalsa College, University of Delhi and Dr Nitin Chauhan from the Microbiology Department of Swami Shraddhanad College, University of Delhi. The quiz was a huge success with an overwhelming number of responses by both school and college students. While the results of the quiz were being computed, an audience quiz was also conducted with the audience typing their answers in the Zoom chatbox. After evaluation of the responses, which proved to be quite difficult since the participants had given each other a tough competition, the results were declared. Shaurya Singh from Guru Hari Krishna Public School was declared winner in the school category. In the college category, Dhruv Sharma from Swami Shraddhanand College stood first and Harshita Kushwaha from Acharya Narendra Dev College stood second. Additionally, Deepanshi Bansal from Shivaji College, Priyanka Mehta from Deen Dayal Upadhyaya College and Ketki Bhatia from Ramjas College were commended on their exceptional performance.

Founder's Day Quiz was organized on September 28, 2022. It was an intra-college event and received registrations from 72 teams. 93 students participated in the prelims. The Quiz was structured in two rounds: there were 20 questions in the prelim round with no negative marking. Six teams made the cut for the final round which was an hour-long event comprising 3 sub-rounds and 5 audience questions in the finals. After tough competition and evaluation of the final marks, Prakarsh Pandey was declared as 1st prize winner, Absalom Maxy & Aryan Thapliyal as 2nd and Shreshtha Kumar Gupta & Karan Singh as the 3rd.

On November 22, 2022 The orientation program of Sangyaan- the Qizzing Society was organised under the aegis of Deekshaarambh was organized to give the new batch of students an experience of how the society works.
