D.O.No.1-3/2021(e. Gov)

18 August, 2021

Subject: Streamlining the forms and processes for reducing compliance burden in Higher Education Sector.

Respected Madam/Sir

The Ministry of Education and University Grants Commission have organized two virtual workshops on 31st March, 2021 and 19th April, 2021 to streamline the forms and processes for reducing compliance burden in Higher Education Sector. The workshop was attended by Chancellors, Vice-Chancellors of Central, State, Deemed to be Universities and Directors of Institutions of National Importance.

Based on the observations made by the participants certain areas have been identified for streamlining process and reduction of compliance burden:

- i. Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) should initiate new reforms for simplification of methods in administration and finance.
- ii. A centralized database or a central repository/portal for pooling of data regarding HEIs
- iii. A streamlined automated system for accounting reforms in HEIs
- iv. Autonomy within the Institutions
- v. Accessibility to internet facilities in rural areas

All the HEIs are requested to submit the detailed suggestions for streamlining processes and reduction of compliance burden in the Higher Education Sector latest by 31st August, 2021 on University Activity Monitoring Portal (UAMP) of UGC at <https://www.ugc.ac.in/uamp>

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Rajnish Jain)

To
The Vice-Chancellors of all Universities/
Directors of Institutions of National Importance
