

Report on Carnatic Violin Recital by
SPIC MACAY DDUC Chapter

Date: February 22, 2025

Venue: Auditorium, Deen Dayal Upadhyay College

Time: 11:00 AM

The SPIC MACAY chapter of Deen Dayal Upadhyay College successfully organized a mesmerizing Carnatic Violin Recital on February 22, 2025. The event was held in the college auditorium, which was nearly full with an enthusiastic audience eager to experience the classical music performance.

The recital featured the renowned violinist Dr. Mysore Manjunath, who was accompanied by Sumath Manjunath (Violin), Shankar Raman (Mridangam), and Varun Rajshekharan (Ghatam).

The event commenced at 11:00 AM with an introduction by anchors Rishika and Sushma, who warmly welcomed the artists and the audience. Following the welcome speech, Dr. Chayanika, co-convenor of Spic Macay, honoured the artists with bouquets as a gesture of gratitude.

After a brief introduction of the artists, the recital began, creating a captivating musical atmosphere. The artists seamlessly synchronized their instruments, allowing the audience to immerse themselves in the rhythm and melody of Carnatic music. The performance showcased the intricate artistry and deep-rooted tradition of this classical form.

As the event reached its conclusion, the artists performed the soulful composition “Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram,” leaving the audience spellbound. The artists expressed their gratitude to the spectators for their enthusiastic presence.

Dr. Chayanika then extended her heartfelt thanks to the artists for their extraordinary performance and honoured them with traditional shawls as a token of respect and appreciation. The event concluded with a group photograph, capturing the memorable moments shared between the artists, organizers, and attendees.

The recital was a resounding success, enriching the audience with a deep appreciation for Indian classical music and leaving an everlasting impact on all present.

